Cost Breakdown

Airfare: Jet Blue has flights around $420 roundtrip. Last time we all flew on the same flight—and that was a blast!! Would suggest you book your flight ASAP, as the flight costs are sure to increase. Tuesdays are typically the cheapest day to book. I will shoot out flight details after I book mine.

Lodging & Excursions: The trip to Quepos will include lodging, chefs, excursions, transfers to/from airport, food/alcohol at house, Thursday charter/tournament. The Saturday fishing charter with our member Skipper Gentry (Carolina Gentleman) will be optional for anyone wants to slay another day (anglers will split this cost). Everyday we have two chefs to prepare breakfast, dinner, and drinks. All you have to do is enjoy the infinity pool, and sip on Pina Coladas.

Charter: All 4 vessels are 34' + Sportfishers. There will be 5 anglers per vessel. The captains understand that we will be doing a mini-tourney against each other. Mates will only be allowed to bait, leader and gaff fish. Only our anglers can set the drag and fight the fish. Vessels will be stocked with beer, beverages and lunch. Each team to tip their captains. Charter run on Saturday is optional. Please request that all vessels provide some live action fishing video for our International club video!

Currency Exchange Rate is 1:3. Therefore, for every 1 US dollar you get 535 Colons. Example: For a beer in Costa Rica plan on spending around 2-3 bucks. I just bought a Corona at Pompano Beach house for $8. Ughhhh

In order to secure your spot, a $600 deposit is required per person. This trip is one of the most upscale trips we have ever done. Estimated cost will run around $1600 per person
