Cost Breakdown

Airfare: We will be tracking flight options and prices and keeping everyone posted when we see a good deal. Last year most of us flew either Jet Blue or Spirit out of FLL. Tuesdays are typically the cheapest day to book.

Lodging & Excursions: The trip to Quepos will include lodging, chefs, excursions, transfers to/from airport, food at house, Thursday/Saturday charters with Carolina Gentleman and two other same caliber of vessels. Every day we are at the villa, the chef will prepare breakfast, lunch and dinner. We will go out for dinner at least one night which will be at your own expense. Otherwise, all you have to do is enjoy the infinity pool, friends and fun! Dinners not at the villa are NOT included.

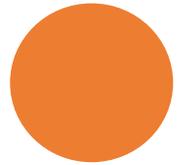

Charter: All 3 vessels are 52'+ Sportfishers. There will be 7 anglers on 2 vessels, and 6 for the other. The captains understand that we will be doing a mini-tourney against each other. Mates will only be allowed to bait, leader and gaff fish. Vessels will be stocked with beer, beverages and lunch. Tip is included in the trip price. Please I am requesting that all vessels provide some live action fishing video for our International club video!

Currency Exchange Rate is 1:3. Therefore, for every 1 US dollar you get 535 Colons. Example: For a beer in Costa Rica plan on spending around 2-3 bucks. I just bought a Corona at Pompano Beach house for $8. Ughhhh

In order to secure your spot, a $600 deposit is required per person. This trip is one of the most upscale trips we have ever done. Estimated cost will run around $2500 per person
