The OAPB 2027 International Trip will be hosted in Quepos/Manuel Antonio, Costa Rica. We will check-in to the Villa on Thursday, February 25th and depart on Tuesday, March 2nd.

ITINERARY:

Thursday- We depart on Thursday, February 25th in the morning, and arrive in San Jose, Costa Rica around 11am. Then hop onto a small plane to Quepos (30 min). Local taxis will bring our members to the local grocery store to load up on snacks and alcohol for our Villa in Manuel Antonio. Explore the villa, hop in the pool, dinner will be prepared, and the opportunity to create long life bonds with each other.

Friday- Full-day Fishing charters. Thank you to Carolina Gentleman Sportfishing for locking in our vessels. Mini-tourney against each other. Chef will prepare what we caught fishing that day. Option to stay at house and get in pool or check out downtown area for bar hopping, shopping, etc

Saturday – Sunset Cruise aboard Brisa Elegante (100' Wooden Boat, Pirate Ship!) Spend the morning checking out Quepos and shopping then meet at the vessel at 1pm at Marina Paz Vela. Our chef will prepares surf (our catch from Friday) and turf (steak, chicken or vegetarian) dinner for us at our villa when we return.

Sunday – Second day of charter fishing if you opt in (this is not included). Our chef will prepares surf (our catch from Friday) and turf (steak, chicken or vegetarian) dinner for us at our villa when we return. Hang out at house or head into town or to the casino.

Monday – Open day to do whatever you want. We will plan to do a little house party and hang out for our last night.

Tuesday – Depart for Fort Lauderdale. Breakfast will be prepared. Taxis will pick us up and transport us to the local airport. We will be taking a small plane from Quepos to San Jose.
